

la Battistina

La Battistina

Gavi DOCG

Color

Straw yellow

Aroma

Aromatic, zesty nose with apple and lime notes.

Palate

The wine is juicy, and gently nutty with attractive mineral characters, textured weighty fruit and a

Grape variety

Cortese

Area

The hills of Gavi area in the province of Alessandria, South Piedmont

Vineyards

Piedmontese Guyot training system. Plant density 4,000-4,500 vines per hectare. Exposures East and South-East at altitudes between 200 and 400 MAMSL Clayey soil.

Food match

Delicious with appetisers and light fish courses.

Awards

Vintage 2020

Bronze Medal - IWSC

89 points - Jacopo Manni (intravino.com)